PATRON-IN-CHIEF'S MESSAGE

It is my profound privilege and honour to be the Patron-in Chief of the Navy League – an august body of individuals who have spent decades in Whites whilst serving the Nation

The basic objective of the Navy League i.e developing a sense of camaraderie amongst retired officers, and promotion of their welfare is being achieved successfully. This speaks volumes of the work being put in by the office bearers at all three Chapter of Navy League.- Karachi, Islamabad, and Lahore.

As Patron-in-chief I am deeply satisfied to know that the Navy League is also significantly contributing to maritime awareness by promoting maritime traditions and values from this non-governmental platform. Also, Highly commendable is Navy League's tremendous contribution and participation In philanthropic activities: especially, management of school at Baba Island, Karachi and the extensive work done to help the needy during the ongoing pandemic.

To me, the inland and overseas trips undertaken by Navy League is a wonderful idea that keeps the members and their families well knitted and keeps the decades old comradeship going..

While I pray to Almighty Allah to give you the strength to continue your endeavours, I would also like to assure that the Naval Headquarters shall continue to provide the requisite support to facilitate in achievement of your noble goals and objective..

May Allah Bless us All – Ameen.
